The TESDA Palawan Provincial Office led by the dynamic Provincial Director, Vivian E. Abueva, successfully held the 2022 Provincial Skills Competition (PSC) with the theme, "Enriching Skills, Transforming Lives" last July 7 to 8, 2022 at Robinsons Place and Puerto Princesa School of Arts and

Trades (PPSAT). In her welcome remarks during the opening program, PD Abueva highlighted the socio-economic importance of conducting skills competition. Dr. Sianita Tadlas, PPSAT's Vocational School Administrator III, provided the skills competition's overview. Ms. Shiara Kuh Conde, the focal of the Unified TVET Program Registration and Accreditation System (UTPRAS) introduced the judges, the competitors, and the criteria for the competition. Moreover, the Administrator of the Provincial Training Center (PTC), Ms. Javelin Obrero, oriented the audience about the brief history of the Philippine Skills Competition.

Provincial Skills Competition Goes Hybrid

Adhering to the use of information and communications technology (ICT), Mr. Arnold Leoben Campued and his team led the setting up of equipment for simultaneous viewing of various events both in Robinsons Place and PPSAT. This innovative process aimed to provide better coverage and faster information dissemination to all other audiences . >page 3

Page 1 < The Provincial Information Officer, Atty. Christian Jay Cojamco, represented Gov. Dennis Socrates and PTESDC Chair, Atty. Jethro Palayon. Atty. Cojamco expressed his advance congratulations to all the competitors. He emphasized that skills competitions are perfect platform for showcasing the TVET learners' skills, which will eventually help them enhance their confidence as they walk through their respective careers in the future. Althea Janine D. Aloquin, the competitor in Driving from Narra Polytechnic Institute of Technology (NPIT), led the Oath of Sportsmanship.

Basically, the participants competed in various qualifications such as Baking, Restaurant Services, Electrical Installation, Plumbing and Heating, Welding, Information Network and Cabling, and Driving. The information network and cabling was held at Robinsons Place while the rest were conducted in PPSAT Campus. Selected trainees and alumni from PPSAT, Puerto Princesa School of Science and Technology, PTC-Palawan, Carina School of Science and Advanced Technology, Inc. and NPIT joined the 2022 PSC.

Moreover, various farm schools led by Dr. Patty Ortega, the President of the TVIs Association of Palawan (TAP) held a friendly competition during the Farm Olympics at PPSAT grounds on the second day of PSC. Active participants came from Farm Teach, Asea Greens Farm, Tree of Life Nursery, Javenri Harvest Farm, Aloha House, and Yamang Bukid. Patio Agricultural Farm also provided technical help.

The two-day PSC event ended with the recognition of competitors, participants, coaches and juries, as well as the awarding of winners at Robinsons Place Palawan on July 8, 2022. During his speech, Mr. George Vasquez, the CTEC focal of Puerto Princesa, commended the event's organizer and congratulated all the winners. He also pointed out the significance of capitalizing on human resources through skills training. On the other hand, in her closing speech, Dr. Ortega, the TAP President, stressed the great help of skills enhancement in developing community resiliency during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Web Techno 2021 participants receive recognition

The TESDA Central Office issued Certificates of Recognition to Nestor Kenneth Aniar and Marie Ethel Davila for representing Palawan during the 2021 National Skills Competition in Web Technologies. Aniar was awarded not just as a competitor but also for bagging the Medalion of Excellence Award in the said trade. Davila received recognition as an expert. The two attended the closing program of the 2022 PSC where they received the certificates.

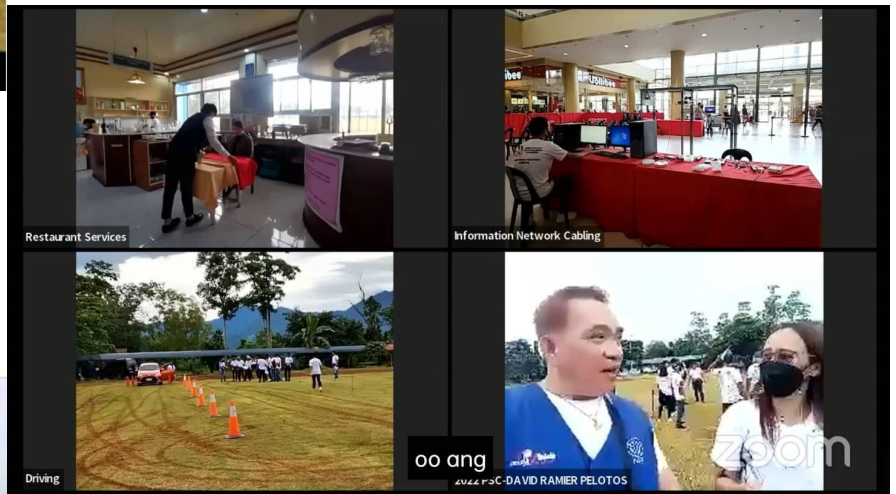

Hybrid Skills Competition
